Art Unit: 2153

1. Claims 2-3 are presented for examination, and claim 1 was canceled.
2. Claims 2-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 2, it is unclear how a sponsor is allowed to set up an interactive web book. It is unclear how contributors are allowed to contribute material to the interactive web book. And it is unclear based on what both the sponsor and the contributors are compensated.

In claim 3, it is unclear what the applicant really means by the term "supporting". It is unclear how a sponsor is allowed to replicate the interactive web book.

It is requested that a future correspondence from applicants have line numbering for the recitation of claims, if possible, as this will aid in the future correspondence from the examiner.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by G. M. Manzini et al. ["Interactive Books", International Journal of Modern Physics C, Vol. 5, No. 5, pp. 785-789, hereinafter Manzini]. This reference was cited in the parent case.
5. Manzini et al. anticipates the invention substantially as claimed. Taking claims 2-3 as exemplary claims, the reference anticipates a method for managing interactive web book (see the title), comprising: a) sponsor, b) contributor and c) payment to both the sponsor and contributor based on revenue on the interactive book (see pages 785-789).

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The references are cited in the Form PTO-892 for the applicant's review. These references were cited and used in the parent case, thus, copies of these references are not being furnished with this Office action.

A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire 3 (three) months and 0 (zero) days from the mail date of this letter. Failure to respond within the period for response will result in ABANDONMENT of the application (see 35 U.S.C 133, M.P.E.P 710.02, 710.02(b)).
